1757 dated 9 August 1954 [L. Drollery 5] [L. Section 27 August MORITZ was informed by Adolf PUCHER, through Hans SCHERF that PUCHER and Dr. AUGSBURG, a former SD Stabschef, and expert for Russian affairs at the Gahlen Headquarters was handling the [L. Drollery 3] case, and would never deliver a comrade to the French but rather give him a warning to enable him to go underground, or, as far as they were concerned, to disappear into the Soviet Union. They had been supported in their effort to make MORITZ appear as a counter agent by Dr. Rolf OETTER-ROEDER, a former SD Ostbf. and an old acquaintance of MORITZ who carried much influence with GENIE.
